Sermon Notes: Come & See the Gate to the Sheep

Read John 10.1-10: Spend some time reading through the text together and highlighting keep words & phrases.

Discussion:

1. What image does God give to convey how He cares for His people?
2. How does God respond to the failure of the Israelite leaders in Ezekiel 34?
3. In what ways does Jesus care for His sheep?
4. Take time to reflect on the fact that Jesus knows and calls you by name. In what ways does that stir your emotions?
5. How is Jesus the gate (door) for the sheep?
6. What have you been saved from and saved to as a Christian?

Pray it through:

When fear arises, remember your security is in Jesus. He and the Father have you in a double-fisted handful of protective custody. Nothing, nor no one can pluck you from Their hands. Spend time in prayer together, thanking God for the protection and security that is offered through Christ.

The Man Born Blind

The man Jesus healed in John 9, is an intriguing fellow. He knows one fact: "I was blind, and now I see." He stubbornly maintains that fact.

Some questioned whether he was ever blind. His parents assured them he was. They asked, "How does he now see?" His parents declined to answer, but he said, "Jesus put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see." They asked, "What do you say about him, since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet" -- that is, He speaks for God.

Jesus did not keep their obscure Sabbath rules; so they said Jesus is a sinner. The formerly blind man said, "One thing I know, though I was blind, now I see." They asked him twice, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" He said, "I have told you already. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to be His disciples?"

They angrily replied, "You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where He comes from." The once blind man stuck to his one fact: "Why, here is the wonder: you cannot figure out where He came from, and yet He opened my eyes!"

If you cannot answer a person's arguments, attack the person. They answered him, "You were born in utter sin, and would you teach us?" And they cast him out.

Jesus found him and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" Knowing that Jesus is a prophet, he answered, "You tell me who he is and I will believe." Jesus said, "It is He who is speaking to you." He said, "Lord I believe," and he worshiped Him.
